

TIMELY EVENTS PICTURED IN CARTOON BY THE LEADING ARTISTS OF THE COUNTRY

WHEN SILENCE DOESN'T SATISFY

They Ought to Be Coming Home About Now! —Omaha Bee

WILSON—"BE PATIENT, YOU'LL GET HERE"

—Philadelphia Ledger

NOW PAY THE FIDDLER

—Kalamazoo

MELTING

—American Industries

THE NONENTITY

—Brooklyn Eagle

TOO MUCH FOR HIM

—Chicago News

NEWS FROM ONE HUNDRED LIVE CORRESPONDENTS

EASTERN CONNECTICUT AND WESTERN RHODE ISLAND

Who is Going and Coming—Incidents, Accidents and Building in Three Counties

New London County

FITCHVILLE

Representative Stark Attends Special Legislative Session.

Rev. and Mrs. George Chambers, Jeremiah Wilcox, Mrs. Phoebe Robinson and Mrs. Ethel Eastland attended the special session of the legislature at Fitchville this week.

John F. Fields, John McManus and W. N. Chapman of this place and Timothy Fields of Norwich town motored Sunday to Arctic, R. I., where they were the guests of friends.

Mrs. N. D. Winchester of this place was with a motor party from Williamstown to Savin Rock, New Haven, on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. J. Edward Foley are spending their vacation in Blackstone, Mass., New York and Bridgeport.

Mr. and Mrs. William Brady of Fitchville and Mr. and Mrs. William Browne of Norwich motored Sunday to Sterling, where they were guests of Mrs. Brady's sister, Mr. and Mrs. John Labcock.

Motored to Hartford.

Representative Nelson Stark motored to Hartford Tuesday, attending the special session of the legislature. He had as guests E. N. Stark, Mrs. Nelson Stark, Mrs. Ethel Eastland and Mrs. G. Mayfield.

Peter Olson of Jewett City was the guest of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Margaret Popham Sunday.

Miss Julia Kingsley of Norwich town spent Sunday with the Misses McCarthy.

At East Lyme Meetings.

Rev. and Mrs. Chambers, Mrs. Ethel M. Eastland, Mrs. Phoebe Robinson and Jeremiah Wilcox attended the New London Baptist association meetings at East Lyme Wednesday and Thursday of this week.

Master Martin De Pont of Bradford, R. I., is spending a few days at the parsonage with the Chambers family.

SOUTH LYME

Miss Etta Powell of New Haven is teaching in the First district this year. The school has been enlarged and presents an attractive appearance.

George Clark of Lyme has moved to one of E. P. Stanhope's tenements, Mr. Baldwin and family have moved and moved into the Rocky Neck farmhouse.

Mrs. F. C. Payne was a recent New London visitor.

Arthur Miner of the ship engine company, Groton, was at his home here over Sunday.

Mrs. John Roach and daughter Barrie are guests of Mrs. Roach's mother, Mrs. Post, in Ivoryton.

The condition of Ezekiah Chadwick remains unchanged. He is very feeble.

Miss Mabel Littlefield of Lyme was calling on friends here this week.

Mrs. Henry Champion, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Payne, has gone to Lyme to visit her sister.

Mrs. Josephine Pelton of Brooklyn, N. Y., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. F. W. Chapman.

CLARK'S FALLS

Mrs. Addie Bill is entertaining her niece, Addie Duke, from Providence.

Elmer E. Main, sometimes called "Colonel" by his friends, has finished his work for G. E. Langworthy at Watch Hill and Monday morning left for Hartford, where he will be employed in a garage.

John Perry is filling his silo this week and has a number of men helping.

Mrs. Kate Thomas, Mrs. Mamie O'Neil and daughter Sophia of Taunton, Mass., are with Mrs. Thomas' sister, Mrs. Mary J. Maine.

Hornor Palmer caught a bass that weighed 50 ounces recently, and 16 pickers.

The Western Automatic Telephone company had men at work on their lines in this part of the town Monday.

GLASGO

Twenty-one Attend Ladies' Aid Society's Meeting—Big Second Crop of Clover.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodmancy and Miss Mirah Kinney were business callers in Norwich Tuesday.

Mrs. Martha Brown is the guest of Mrs. Walter Thorpe.

There were 21 in attendance at the Ladies' Aid society meeting at Mrs. Palmer's Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Walter Thorpe returned to Westerly Saturday after spending the week with her aunt, Mrs. W. G. Burdick.

Mrs. E. A. Clark attended Kingston fair Thursday.

Second Clover Crop.

R. H. Young has been cutting a second crop of clover, having 60 large bales, which was about half of the field.

The snake oil show which had been here a week went away the first of the week.

Miss Sarah Cameron was a Sunday guest of Mrs. Palmer and Mrs. Albert Palmer.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Pitgood of New London and Mr. and Mrs. Baker and children were also Sunday guests of Mrs. Palmer.

Mrs. Joseph Herbert and daughter Marion were visitors of the former's mother, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Eccleston, Thursday.

GOSHEN

W. H. Geer of Norwich Falls 25 Feet While Fixing Telephone Wires—Rev. E. H. Smith to Preach Tomorrow.

Rev. Mr. Knight of Maine was not able to preach here Sunday as he was expected, but is expected to come early in October. Mr. Hill, secretary of the Young Men's Christian association of Norwich, supplied here very acceptably.

Mrs. Hill and two daughters also attended the morning service.

L. B. Morgan of Norwich was also at the morning service.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Watrous and daughter of Mystic were guests of friends here Sunday.

Undergoes Operation.

W. C. Thomas underwent an operation for appendicitis at the New London hospital Monday.

A number from Goshen attended the field day of Norwich Christian Endeavor union held in Leffingwell Saturday.

W. H. Geer Has Bad Fall.

W. H. Geer of Norwich came near a very serious accident Saturday. With a ladder he was fixing the wires of the local telephone line when the pole broke off close to the ground and he fell a distance of 25 feet. Mr. Geer was badly bruised, but is recovering.

A number from this place were at the state fair in Berlin this week.

Registrars in Session.

The registrars of voters were in session Thursday, receiving the names of those entitled to be made electors before the annual town meeting Oct. 24.

Rev. E. H. Smith to Preach.

Rev. Edward Huntington Smith of Norwich, missionary to China, is to preach in the Goshen church tomorrow.

FRANKLIN

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Smith entertained Rev. L. A. Abrahams of Wilming-ton over the week end.

Rev. C. A. Northrop of Norwich will occupy the pulpit at the Franklin church Sunday morning.

Hart Lamb of West Hartford was a recent guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Lamb.

Miss Lydia Johnson is spending a few weeks at Sunny Top.

Miss Clara L. Grant has been a recent guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Lamb.

Mrs. Elva Brown of Norwich has been the guest of Miss Faith N. Gager.

Mrs. Herman A. Gager was in New London Tuesday.

J. W. Pryde has returned after visiting his sister, Mrs. Luther Holton.

LAUREL GLEN

Mr. Upton has purchased a car. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brightman were callers in this place Saturday.

William Palmer and Eugene Congdon attended the services and burial of Thomas R. Chapman last Sunday on Pendleton Hill.

William L. Main was a Sunday caller in Ashaway.

Mr. and Mrs. George Tillinghast of Mr. and Mrs. George Tillinghast and family of Wequetequoek were recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Main.

Among those who attended Kingston fair this week were Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Main and daughter, Emma, and Rosa Cress, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Main and son Walter.

UNCASVILLE

Seventeen Make Annual Visit to the Almshouse—Reception for Mr. and Mrs. Cousins—Austin-Wood Marriage.

The meeting of the Good Cheer Sunshine society, which was held at the almshouse, was attended by 17 members of the society, conveyed from their homes in automobiles. It has been the custom of the society for several years to make this yearly visit.

The day was pleasantly spent with games, songs and with refreshments of sandwiches, pie, cake, fruit, coffee and ice cream which was served on the lawn at noon. There are four inmates at the almshouse.

Woodmen's Social.

Considering the weather Friday night the social and dance given by the Woodmen of America, was well attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Mathers entertained over this week end Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Mathers of Canton.

Miss Edith E. Taylor after several weeks spent on Long Island has returned to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Williams, as a student at Trinity college, has been spending a week at his home.

Mrs. Martin Barry and children who have been spending the summer with Mrs. Barry's mother, Mrs. Henry McAdams of Gay Hill, has returned to her home in New London.

Robert Kennerson has returned from a brief visit with friends in New York.

Earl McDermitt, who is employed in Brattleboro, is at the home of his mother for a few weeks.

Rev. F. D. Laddington of Hill Top occupied the pulpit in the absence of R. Griswold was given a large history of the Young Ladies' Sewing society, organized in 1841.

There was an attendance of about fifty at the social at Mrs. F. D. Reynolds' Thursday evening.

Rev. and Mrs. W. J. Reynolds were in Danvers a few days this week.

Miss Buchanan of New York is the guest of her cousin, Miss Beatrice Kendall.

Martha Cornell and Miss Dorothy Cornell have returned to New York after ten days' stay at Mrs. J. H. Kennedy's.

Arthur Edmunds is spending his vacation in New York.

chestra and several vocal and piano selections by Mrs. Cousins and Mr. Brooks. Cake, punch and ice cream was served. Mrs. Cousins was before marriage Miss Alice Hadden.

Austin-Wood.

Miss Ethel Louise Wood and Reuben S. Austin were married Saturday evening by Rev. Charles L. French of the Montville Center Congregational church. The bride wore a gown of white satin and carried a bouquet of white roses. She was unattended. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Austin received their friends at the home of Mrs. Austin's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Rosenlund in Pequot. The rooms were decorated with flowers. A pleasant evening was spent during which refreshments were served. The bride received many handsome gifts, among them being a beautiful silk quilt from her associates in the Palmer Bros. Co. mill.

Personal Items.

Howard Rogers, who has been spending a week in Boston, has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Raymond of Blanford, Mass., were recent visitors in town, making the trip in their automobile.

Mrs. George Dart entertained the Thursday afternoon club on her lawn this week. This will be the last open air meeting of the season.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Carlisle of Norwich recently moved to the new house built for Henry Richards.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lathrop and children, who have been spending several weeks at the home of their parents at Gardner Lake, have returned to Palmerston, Mr. Lathrop having recovered from injuries sustained last June so he is able to resume work.

Sunday night the barber shop in the building used for the car station and post office, was broken into. Cigars and razors were taken from the barber shop, one of the razors being used to cut a panel from the door leading into the post office.

LISBON

History of Missionary and Sewing Societies Given at Tuesday's Meeting.

The meeting of the Ladies' Missionary society held at the church Tuesday afternoon was one of unusual interest. A history of the society from the time it was organized by Mrs. J. B. Griswold was given. A large history of the Young Ladies' Sewing society, organized in 1841.

There was an attendance of about fifty at the social at Mrs. F. D. Reynolds' Thursday evening.

Rev. and Mrs. W. J. Reynolds were in Danvers a few days this week.

Miss Buchanan of New York is the guest of her cousin, Miss Beatrice Kendall.

Martha Cornell and Miss Dorothy Cornell have returned to New York after ten days' stay at Mrs. J. H. Kennedy's.

Arthur Edmunds is spending his vacation in New York.

LEBANON

Club and Town Happenings—Congregational Pastor to Begin Series of Special Sermons—Attendants at East Lyme Convention.

L. P. Smith has taken an automobile party to New York and the Catskills. Mrs. Maria Morgan of Rochester is visiting her niece, Mrs. Mary Sweet. Miss Minott of Springfield, Mass., has returned home after spending some time with Rev. and Mrs. H. A. Campbell.

Mr. and Mrs. F. K. Noyes and Miss Mabel Noyes are visiting the former's daughter, Mrs. Amy Sellock, of Exeter, N. H. Mr. Noyes and Miss Noyes are taking an automobile party from there to the White mountains.

Miss Ruby K. Sweet was in Norwich Thursday.

Mrs. Pardee has returned to New Haven after spending the summer at Herbert Sweet's.

Royce Loomis spent two week end with Hermon Brown of Ocean Beach. Misses Virginia, Florence and Dorothy Loomis and Fred M. Abell attended the Christian Endeavor picnic held in Leffingwell Saturday.

Henry Sweet of Norfolk Inn was a recent visitor with his mother, Mrs. Mary Sweet.

Miss Emma Eldredge of Manchester is visiting her cousin, Mrs. Hattie Stark Robinson.

Ernest Church and Mrs. Minnie Raffner of Hartford were calling on friends in town Sunday.

Mrs. Stebbins of New York is visiting her sister, Mrs. N. B. Royall.

Misses Mary and Lizzie Randall are visiting relatives in Branford, Waterbury and Danbury.

F. W. Hoxie has returned from Vermont.

Guest from Ansonia.

Roland Strong of Ansonia was a recent visitor at Mr. and Mrs. Myron J. Hoxie's.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Tucker of Kenyon, R. I., were recent visitors with relatives in town.

Mrs. C. S. Goodwin and Henry J. King were in Rochester Tuesday calling on friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Boothby recently entertained Mr. and Mrs. Warner and two children from Springfield.

Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Stark, Miss Geneva Stark and Miss Sarah Danielson were in Williamstown Tuesday.

Entertained Club.

Mrs. E. L. Danielson entertained the Tasting club of this place Tuesday afternoon.

Charles Irong has returned to his duties in Providence, R. I., after spending some time at his summer home in this place.

Mrs. L. F. Smith was in New London recently, the guest of Ocean Avenue friends.

Mr. Fred Race and Mrs. Jeanette Hoffman of North Franklin visited Mrs. Mary Brown Monday.

Miss Faith Webster of Williamstown spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Loomis and family.

Attended Fair.

Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Pultz attended Kingston fair Thursday.

Mrs. Frank Kingsley has returned from visiting her daughter, Mrs. Frank Perkins, of Springfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Slate have been visiting friends in Canada and Montreal.

Mrs. Mary Williams has returned home after spending some time in New York.

Rev. Benjamin Clark, Mrs. J. P. Abell and Mrs. Mary Williams attended the Baptist convention in East Lyme Wednesday.

Mrs. C. S. Goodwin and Mrs. Henry King were callers at J. Y. Thomas' in Goshen Wednesday.

Miss Verna Bogue of Yantic is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Henry Briggs.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Hewitt attended Kingston fair Wednesday.

The J. W. club met with Mrs. Ned Burgess Wednesday afternoon. There were three tables of what played, first prize going to Mrs. Will Clark; consolation, Mrs. Charles Perkins.

Series of Sermons.

At the Congregational church Sunday morning Rev. H. A. Campbell will begin a series of sermons relating to the social and religious problems of the times. There is to be discovered the mission of the community and the execution of that mission in every local community.

Miss Verna Bogue of Yantic is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Henry Briggs.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Hewitt attended Kingston fair Wednesday.

The J. W. club met with Mrs. Ned Burgess Wednesday afternoon. There were three tables of what played, first prize going to Mrs. Will Clark; consolation, Mrs. Charles Perkins.

Local Baptists at East Lyme Meeting

—Norwich Guests at Corn Roast.

Mr. and Mrs. LeGrand Chappell were callers at J. I. Ross' Sunday.

Misses Mabel and Josephine Rogers of Norwich town were guests Sunday at Mrs. William Risley's.

Mrs. Caroline Thomas and Miss Edna McNeil spent Sunday with Miss Gladys Leffingwell.

Mrs. Isaac Cook of Norwich was the guest of Mrs. C. L. Palmer Tuesday.

Mrs. M. J. Taylor, Mrs. H. Taylor and daughter Florence and Mrs. Henry of Norwich were Sunday callers of Mrs. William Risley.

Rev. L. O. Gates, Mrs. A. H. Beebe, Mrs. J. E. Dolbear, Mrs. Jesse Rogers and Mrs. C. E. Ellis attended the association held at East Lyme Wednesday and Thursday.

Pastors to Exchange.

Sunday Rev. B. H. Clark will exchange with the local pastor, Rev. L. O. Gates. Morning service at 11 o'clock, with Sunday school at 10 o'clock. P. U. meeting at 7:30. Topic, Study to Show Thyself Approved.

Guests from Norwich.

Wednesday evening the young people of the First Baptist church of Norwich, with the young people of the Leffingwell Baptist church, enjoyed a corn roast on the farm of Charles Ellis. After a very pleasant hour around the fire, the young people adjourned to the house, where games and music were enjoyed.

ROAD SOCIETY

Kitchen Shower for Norwich Young Lady—Memorial Service for Deacon B. F. Williams.

The kitchen shower given by Mrs. Harry Flood to Miss Mary Loring of Norwich Friday afternoon was a very pleasant affair.

Byron Billings has moved to the borough of Stonington for the winter.

Harry Flood motored with a party of men to Kingston fair Thursday.

Miss Grace L. Wheeler has returned after spending several days at Old Mystic with Miss Mary Deane.

Memorial Service.

The memorial service for Deacon B. F. Williams was largely attended at the church on Sunday, many coming from the neighboring cities.

The town accounts are being audited by George F. Coates and John H. York.

Joseph Eccleston of Voluntown is visiting friends in the place.

Numbers of the residents here have been attending the Kingston fair.